Membership Benefits

24/7 Information and Research Line

Call MRA's Information and Research Line—a toll-free hotline staffed during business hours, and on-call around the clock every day of the week for urgent matters, to ask questions about anything related to your employees and application of state or federal laws. We are your extra pair of hands to do the research while you carry on with business issues.

Free Wage and Salary Survey Reports

Solid decisions need solid data. MRA members receive free wage and salary survey reports on joining. Plus, members who participate in future surveys receive online copies of the reports for free—that's a $12,000 value.

Members Only Web Site

Download forms from our Members Only Web site at the moment you need them so business doesn't wait. MRA publications on HR and leadership/management topics are also available online. Valuable salary and benefit survey data is accessible to members on the site.

BNA Access

Find HR answers quickly and with confidence using the Bureau of National Affairs (BNA) Employment Guide online reference tool.

Preferred Pricing

Members receive preferred pricing on all surveys, training, human resources and business solutions.
