

Behavioral Interviewing Questions

APPROACHABILITY:

Puts others at ease by listening, allowing adequate time for interactions, and giving undivided attention. Shows receptivity to message being delivered.

1. What sort of first impression do you think you make at different levels of the organization and why?
2. Describe a situation where you had to listen, allow adequate time for interaction, and create a supportive communication environment.
3. What are the key elements that make a person approachable? Provide an example applicable to you.

