

Behavioral Interviewing Questions

LISTENING:

Gives attention to speaker, demonstrates nonverbal cues showing interest, and responds with information or questions, as appropriate.

1. When were your listening skills tested? Why and how did you react?
2. When in the middle of a tough situation, how does listening help?
3. What specific skills do you use to be an effective listener?
4. What makes you effective in this regard?
5. What role does listening play in leadership?

