PRIORITY SETTING:

Determines the interrelationships and relative importance of tasks and takes action accordingly.

1. Describe a time when your priorities didn't match your manager's priorities.

2. Tell me about a time when you had "more on your plate" than time to finish.

3. Tell me about a time when your budget didn't meet the needs of a project.

4. What are your current priorities?

5. What makes something a priority?
