Bernard J. ("Bud") Bobber is a shareholder in the Milwaukee office of Ogletree Deakins. For over 30 years Mr. Bobber has advised and defended employers on their most challenging and high-stakes employment law issues. He represents employers before federal and state courts and administrative agencies throughout the country in all areas of employment law, with particular focus on wage and hour, trade secrets/noncompete, employee benefits and employment discrimination matters. Mr. Bobber has extensive experience in the defense of class action cases. He also routinely represents clients in labor arbitrations and in unfair labor practice charge proceedings before the National Labor Relations Board.

Mr. Bobber received his law degree from Northwestern University School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Illinois.

Mr. Bobber has been listed in The Best Lawyers In America® for over 13 consecutive years. He was also selected for inclusion in the 2005-2018 Wisconsin Super Lawyers® lists. He was elected by colleagues in 2018 to be inducted as a Fellow in The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers. Best Lawyers named Mr. Bobber the 2015 Management-Employment Lawyer of the Year, the 2017 Management-Employment Lawyer of the Year, and the 2018 Management-Labor Law Lawyer of the Year.
