

HUSCH BLACKWELL

Catarina A. Colón – Attorney
Husch Blackwell LLP

As a solutions-focused litigator, Catarina assists clients in a wide variety of labor and employment matters. Her experience includes equal rights and discrimination, retaliation claims, wage and hour issues, Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) matters and Title VII actions. As a diverse professional herself, Catarina also brings a unique perspective to the discrimination claims she works on: her understanding of cultural considerations fosters respect between parties and often leads to a quicker resolution.

Catarina also provides proactive counsel to clients, seeking to prevent problems before they occur. During the COVID-19 pandemic, she has directly supported affected businesses and helped clients navigate new legal issues. Catarina has frequently assisted with interpretation of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act and its leave provisions, advised on furlough and termination decisions, and drafted separation agreements. .
