

Dionna L. Gavin is the director of diversity & inclusion for Froedtert Health. She leads internally facing efforts that include the development, implementation and integration of workforce and workplace DEI initiatives; the design and implementation of equity, diversity, inclusion and anti-racism educational offerings, and the oversight for Business Resource Groups and Diversity Action Teams' strategic efforts.

In previous roles she was responsible for partnering with all levels of leadership to create systematic changes aimed at increasing staff & provider engagement, developing talent, and accelerating staff adoption of enterprise strategic initiatives and projects. Her varied experiences have provided her with a rich background in workforce development, diversity & inclusion, change management, facilitation, mentoring & coaching, and organizational assessments. She is driven by her passion to create inclusive environments where everyone can thrive.
