

BECKY CROWLEY
Officer AML Compliance Specialist
Johnson Financial Group

Becky Crowley is an Officer AML Compliance Specialist and Co-Chair of the Advocating Pride Employee Resource Group at Johnson Financial Group. She has her BA in Organizational Management from Ashford University's Forbes School of Business and has worked with local DEI related groups, including the Wisconsin LGBT Chamber of Commerce – 2021 Business Leadership Academy certification and acting Treasurer for The LGBT Center of Southeast Wisconsin. She was also a 2021 recipient of JFG's "Impact Award", for her continued efforts in building equitable programming and resources within the workplace.

When she is not working with the bank or volunteering, she loves to spend time with her "fur-babies", crafting and creating art, and "crate digging" at local resale shops to expand her vinyl record collection.
