

Shamara Lockwood is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin – Parkside with a BS in Business / Human Resources and a BA in English. Over the last 10 years, she has worked in several industries including health care, staffing, and nonprofit organizations to recruit diverse talent. Shamara currently leads a team of recruitment professionals for Lutheran Social Services focusing on hiring, diverse, multicultural, and compassionate social services professionals to serve over 30,000 clients in 200 programs hiring approximately 400 people a year!