

NIKKI REDMOND
Vice President, Talent Acquisition Manager
Johnson Financial Group

Nikki Redmond is the VP Talent Acquisition Manager at Johnson Financial Group with over 10 years of leadership and recruiting experience. She has a Bachelor of Science in Business and Human Resources from the University of Wisconsin Parkside. She is passionate about DEI and has worked with Johnson Financial Group's Employee Resource Groups to help further our mission of creating a more diverse, inclusive, and equitable environment. She's partnered closely with the CEI and DEI, collaborating with various departments and teams throughout the organization to complete those surveys, and identify any gaps and opportunities for improvement to move JFG forward in their DEI journey.

Outside of work, Nikki enjoys spending time with her husband and three kids. They love to go on adventures exploring what Wisconsin has to offer from parks, beer gardens, and local summer festivals.
