

Kelly Fortier

Michael Best & Friedrich LLP

Kelly Fortier is a Partner at Michael Best & Friedrich LLP and Chair of the firm's immigration practice group. Kelly helps employers of all sizes meet their staffing needs by managing the immigration issues they face in hiring foreign nationals in the United States. Her work covers a wide range of work visas as well as employment-based green card applications.

She advises on strategic immigration practices and compliance issues for organizations, including extensive work within the information technology, professional services, advanced manufacturing, and agribusiness industries. Kelly also specializes in immigration-related worksite enforcement defense, including I-9 audits and training. Kelly's work in immigration has been recognized by leading legal publications, including Chambers USA, Best Lawyers in America, and Law360.

Kelly earned her law degree from Loyola University School of Law and her bachelor's degree from University of Wisconsin-Madison. In addition to her work at Michael Best she serves on the Executive Board for Girl Scouts Wisconsin Southeast and on the Board of Directors for the Wisconsin Policy Forum.
