

Terry Weitgenant

Naviant, Inc.

Terry Weitgenant, Principal Consultant at Naviant, Inc., is an enterprise business process strategist and consultant focused on improving corporate operations through the application of business process improvements and information technology. Terry has more than 15 years of direct business process consulting experience, and over 25 years of experience in information technology. His consulting experience crosses several industries, including insurance and financial services, government, manufacturing, healthcare, and retail.